

TIM NOBLE BIOGRAPHY

After training at The Central School of Ballet under the tuition of the late and great Christopher Gable, Tim went on to study for a further three years at The London Studio Centre.

West End Career

In 1994 he successfully gained a part in the original West End production of "Grease the Musical" at the Dominion Theatre. He remained a cast member playing the role of "Johnny Casino" also making appearances as "Kenickie" and "Sonny" for the following four years, until being invited to join the production of "Starlight Express" at the Victoria Apollo Theatre in 1998.

In 2000 Tim was thrilled to obtain a place as a dancer within the Kylie Minogue camp and acted as her Dance Captain for the next five years, spanning her four hit albums.

Choreography

In 2004 Tim was invited to choreograph a number of Kylie's live International shows such as Paris and Barcelona and assisted Micheal Rooney on the "Chocolate" video and Kylie's "Show Girl" world tour 2005.

Tim helped choreograph the film "Ella Enchanted" and several music videos including the Pharrell Williams music video "Sex and Money"

Television Productions

Ireland

Tim wrote, choreographed and presented the hit T.V. series, "A Chance to Dance", RTE 1 2005 (BBC 1 Ireland), and since that time under the banner of his new company, Pure Star Productions Ltd. has developed formats for U.K. and International broadcasters.

Holland

After working as Dance Mentor/Choreographer for Pop Idol in Holland and choreographer for the Dutch band "Treble" in the 2006 Eurovision Song competition, in Athens, Tim was delighted to work for three months for the fantastic Dutch X-Factor T.V. series as choreographer and performance mentor and worked with the winner, Sharon during the promotion of her album. Tim has also worked with the JETIX team on Disney's High School Musical spectacular and has many other exciting projects in the U.K. and Europe.

Performance Mentoring/Artist Development

To develop and define creative potential, Tim offers performance mentoring and artist development for individuals and groups including currently a fabulous local band and huge talent contests such as Festival 4 Stars where Tim is also a Judge.

Dance Workshops

Tim together with his fabulous team of world class dancers and choreographers undertake Pure Star Dance Workshops across the U.K., Ireland, Holland, France, Greece and Italy specialising in the latest dance styles and performance techniques.
